

Your Home Solutions Advantage Insurance

Policy document

Welcome to your Home Solutions Advantage Insurance Policy

This policy is underwritten by Zurich Insurance plc and administered and serviced by Broker Direct Plc.

Your policy provides cover for the sections and the period of insurance shown in your schedule.

This policy is an agreement between you, (the person shown in your schedule as the insured) and us (Zurich Insurance plc). It is based on the information you gave in a statement of facts and your agreement to pay the premium.

Remember, you must tell us if this information changes. If you do not, your policy may not be valid and claims may not be met.

You must read this policy together with your schedule, any specifications or endorsements as one contract.

Please make sure that together they provide the cover you asked for. If they do not, please contact your insurance advisor or us as soon as possible.

The conditions and exclusions that apply to all sections of your policy are shown on pages 13 and 14. Please make sure that you read these as well as the cover shown in each section.

If we pay a claim for the same cause happening at the same time under both the buildings and contents sections, we will only take off one excess. This will be the highest excess shown in your schedule.

Cancellation Rights

If you decide that you do not want to accept the policy (or any future renewal of the policy by us) tell us (or your insurance adviser) of your decision, in writing or by phone using the contact details provided on the covering letter within 14 days of receiving the policy (or for renewal, within 14 days of your policy renewal date). If no claims have been made we will refund the premium you have paid. If a claim is made we charge you for the days we have been on cover (applying a minimum premium of £15 plus insurance premium tax) and then refund the remainder of the premium you have paid.

Family legal expenses section

Under this section claims are managed by Lawclub Legal Protection of Redwood House, Brotherswood Court, Great Park Road, Bradley Stoke, Bristol BS32 4QW.

Your cover includes access to the Zurich legal helpline which will give you advice on any personal legal problem 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. Simply call the helpline on 0870 010 9071. Please quote reference 36406. The advice you get from the legal helpline will always be according to the laws of Great Britain and Northern Ireland. We may record the calls to protect you.

Your cover also includes access to one of our approved specialist solicitor firms if your claim is covered by this section.

In this section of your policy, the words 'you' and 'your' mean the person named in your schedule and any member of your family who permanently lives with you in your home at the address shown in your schedule.

The 'legal representative' is the solicitor or other person appointed with our agreement under this section to represent you. At any time before we agree that legal proceedings need to be issued, we will choose the legal representative.

The legal representative that we choose will be from one of our approved specialist solicitor firms.

You can only choose the legal representative if we agree that legal proceedings need to be issued or if a conflict of interest arises which means that the legal representative cannot act for you. You must send his or her name and address to us. If we agree to appoint a legal representative that you choose, you must pay a £250 excess. You must pay the excess at the start of your claim. If we agree to appoint a legal representative that you choose, he or she will be appointed on the same terms as we would have appointed our chosen legal representative. We may decide not to accept your choice of legal representative.

If we do not agree with your choice, the matter will be settled using the procedure in condition 5.

When choosing the legal representative, you must remember your duty to keep the cost of any legal proceedings as low as possible.

'Costs' are the professional fees and expenses reasonably and properly charged by the legal representative on a standard basis (that is, the assessment of costs which are proportionate to your claim) up to the standard rates set by the courts, which cannot be recovered from your opponent. We will only pay costs which we consider are necessary and in proportion to the value of your claim. We will also pay your opponent's costs in civil cases which you are ordered to pay by a court or tribunal, or which you pay to your opponent with our written agreement. We will only start to cover costs from the time we have accepted the claim and appointed the legal representative.

The most we will pay for all claims arising from one event under this section is £50,000.

Under this section, you are covered in Great Britain, Northern Ireland, the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man. These are known as the 'territorial limits'.

The territorial limits for death and bodily injury claims, apart from claims relating to medical treatment, include the member states of the European Union, Andorra, Croatia, Gibraltar, Iceland, Liechtenstein, Monaco, Norway, San Marino, Switzerland and Turkey.

What is covered

As long as the event, or series of events, which gave rise to a claim starts within the period of insurance and, at all times, you have a reasonable chance of recovering damages, successfully defending legal action or settling the matter in another way, we will pay the costs we have agreed to for the following.

- Taking legal action against your opponent within the territorial limits:

- tell us if, at any stage, there is no longer a reasonable chance of a successful defence, recovering damages or getting any other remedy;
- tell us immediately if your opponent makes a payment into court or any offer to settle the matter;
- report the result of the claim to us when it is finished.

3 We will have the right to:

- take over and conduct, in your name, any claim or proceedings;
- settle a claim by paying the amount in dispute or by mediation;
- appoint the legal representative in your name and on your behalf;
- choose the legal representative at any time before we agree that legal proceedings need to be issued. The legal representative that we choose will be from one of our approved specialist solicitor firms. You can only choose the legal representative if we agree that legal proceedings need to be issued or if a conflict of interest arises which means that the legal representative cannot act for you. You must send his or her name and address to us. If we agree to appoint a legal representative that you choose, you must pay a £250 excess.

You must pay the excess at the start of your claim. If we agree to appoint a legal representative that you choose, he or she will be appointed on the same terms as we would have appointed our chosen legal representative. We may decide not to accept your choice of legal representative. If we do not agree with your choice, the matter will be settled using the procedure in condition 5;

- have any legal bill audited or assessed;
- contact the legal representative at any time, and have access to all statements, opinions and reports;
- end your claim if, during the course of the claim, we think there is no longer a reasonable chance of success. If you continue the claim and get a better settlement than we expected, we will pay your reasonable costs;
- settle the costs covered by this part of your policy at the end of the claim;
- end your claim and recover any costs from you which we have already paid or agreed to pay if:
 - the legal representative reasonably refuses to continue acting for you because of any unreasonable act or failure to act by you; or
 - you unreasonably withdraw your claim from the legal representative without our agreement; and
 - we do not agree to appoint another legal representative to continue your claim.

- 4 We will not be bound by any agreement between you and the legal representative, or you and any other person or organisation.
- 5 If there is a dispute between you and us, the matter may be referred to an arbitrator who you and we agree to. If you and we cannot agree on an arbitrator, the President of the Law Society or the Chairman of the Bar Council will choose one. Whoever loses the arbitration must pay all the costs involved. If the decision is not clearly made against either you or us, the arbitrator will decide how you and we will share the costs.

Identity fraud assistance helpline

'CreditExpert' is an online credit monitoring and identity fraud protection service provided by Experian.

'Experian' is a UK credit reference agency – appointed by us to administer this Identity fraud assistance helpline and CreditExpert service.

'Identity fraud' is where your personal details are used by someone not authorised by you to obtain access to your bank, credit or savings accounts to obtain money or to obtain goods or services in your name.

Your Family legal expenses section includes access to our free Identity fraud assistance helpline.

This helpline and the CreditExpert service that are described below are only available to you where you are aged eighteen years or older.

To contact the free helpline, please call:

0800 183 0570

(Monday to Friday 8am – 7pm and Saturday 9am to 4pm)

When calling this helpline, you will be asked to quote your Zurich home insurance policy number.

What is provided by this helpline

Our confidential Identity fraud assistance helpline is provided by and managed on our behalf by Experian.

You can contact the Identity fraud assistance helpline to obtain advice on any general matter relating to identity fraud.

Additional CreditExpert service from Experian (extra charges may apply)

If you believe that you or a member of your family have, or may, become the victim of identity fraud, a credit report can help you and Experian determine if that is the case.

You can see your credit report free of charge by registering for a free 30 day CreditExpert trial membership, which provides you with unlimited access to your Experian credit report online during that period. This will provide detail of your credit commitments and will enable you to identify all applications for credit in your name.

If following the access to your Experian credit report, you and Experian believe that you have become a victim of identity fraud, Experian will assign a personal case handler from their Victim of Fraud Team who will provide you with advice, support and assistance until all entries on your credit report that you and Experian agree to investigate are clarified and, where possible, resolved.

In circumstances where Experian agree that you have become the victim of identity fraud, CreditExpert membership will be provided to you free of charge for a further 12 months from the date that the Experian Victim of Fraud Team begin to assist you to resolve the identity fraud to which you have become a victim.

Important

At the end of this 12 month period, your CreditExpert membership will automatically continue, for which you will be required to pay a monthly fee. The level of that fee will have been confirmed to you when you first registered for the free 30 day trial.

If you do not wish to continue your CreditExpert membership, you will need to contact Experian to cancel your membership, otherwise the monthly fee will be charged.

You will still be able to call the Identity fraud assistance helpline to receive advice on any general matter relating to identity fraud even if you cancel your CreditExpert membership.

If you believe that you have again become a victim of identity fraud after you have cancelled your CreditExpert membership, you will be able to reinstate it, although you will be required to pay a monthly fee. If Experian agree that you have again become the victim of identity fraud, CreditExpert membership will be provided to you free of charge for a further 12 months from the date that the Experian Victim of Fraud Team begin to assist you to resolve the identity fraud to which you have become a victim. Experian will refund the CreditExpert membership fee paid by you for the month in which they agree that you have become the victim of identity fraud.

You are only entitled to a maximum of two free 12 month CreditExpert memberships during the entire time that your Family legal expenses section is operative under your Zurich home insurance policy.

What happens after the end of the free 30 day trial membership of CreditExpert?

Important

If during your free 30 day trial CreditExpert membership you did not discover that you have become the victim of identity fraud, your membership will automatically continue, for which you will be required to pay a monthly fee. The level of that fee will have been confirmed to you when you first registered for the 30 day free trial.

If you do not wish to continue your CreditExpert membership, you will need to contact Experian to cancel your membership, otherwise the monthly fee will be charged.

You will still be able to call the Identity fraud assistance helpline to receive advice even if you cancel your free CreditExpert membership. However, you are only entitled to one free 30 day trial during the entire time that your Family legal expenses section is operative under your Zurich home insurance policy. If you do cancel your CreditExpert membership after the free 30 day trial, but then wish to reinstate it, you will be required to pay a monthly fee.

Please be assured that any investigation that is started during the free 30 day trial or 12 month free CreditExpert membership periods will be completed, even if you cancel your membership and the completion of that investigation does not happen until after the end of the free membership period.
